FOREWORD

"There's something in the parting hour-
Will chill the warmest heart,
Yet kindred, comrades, lovers, friends,
Are faded all to part."

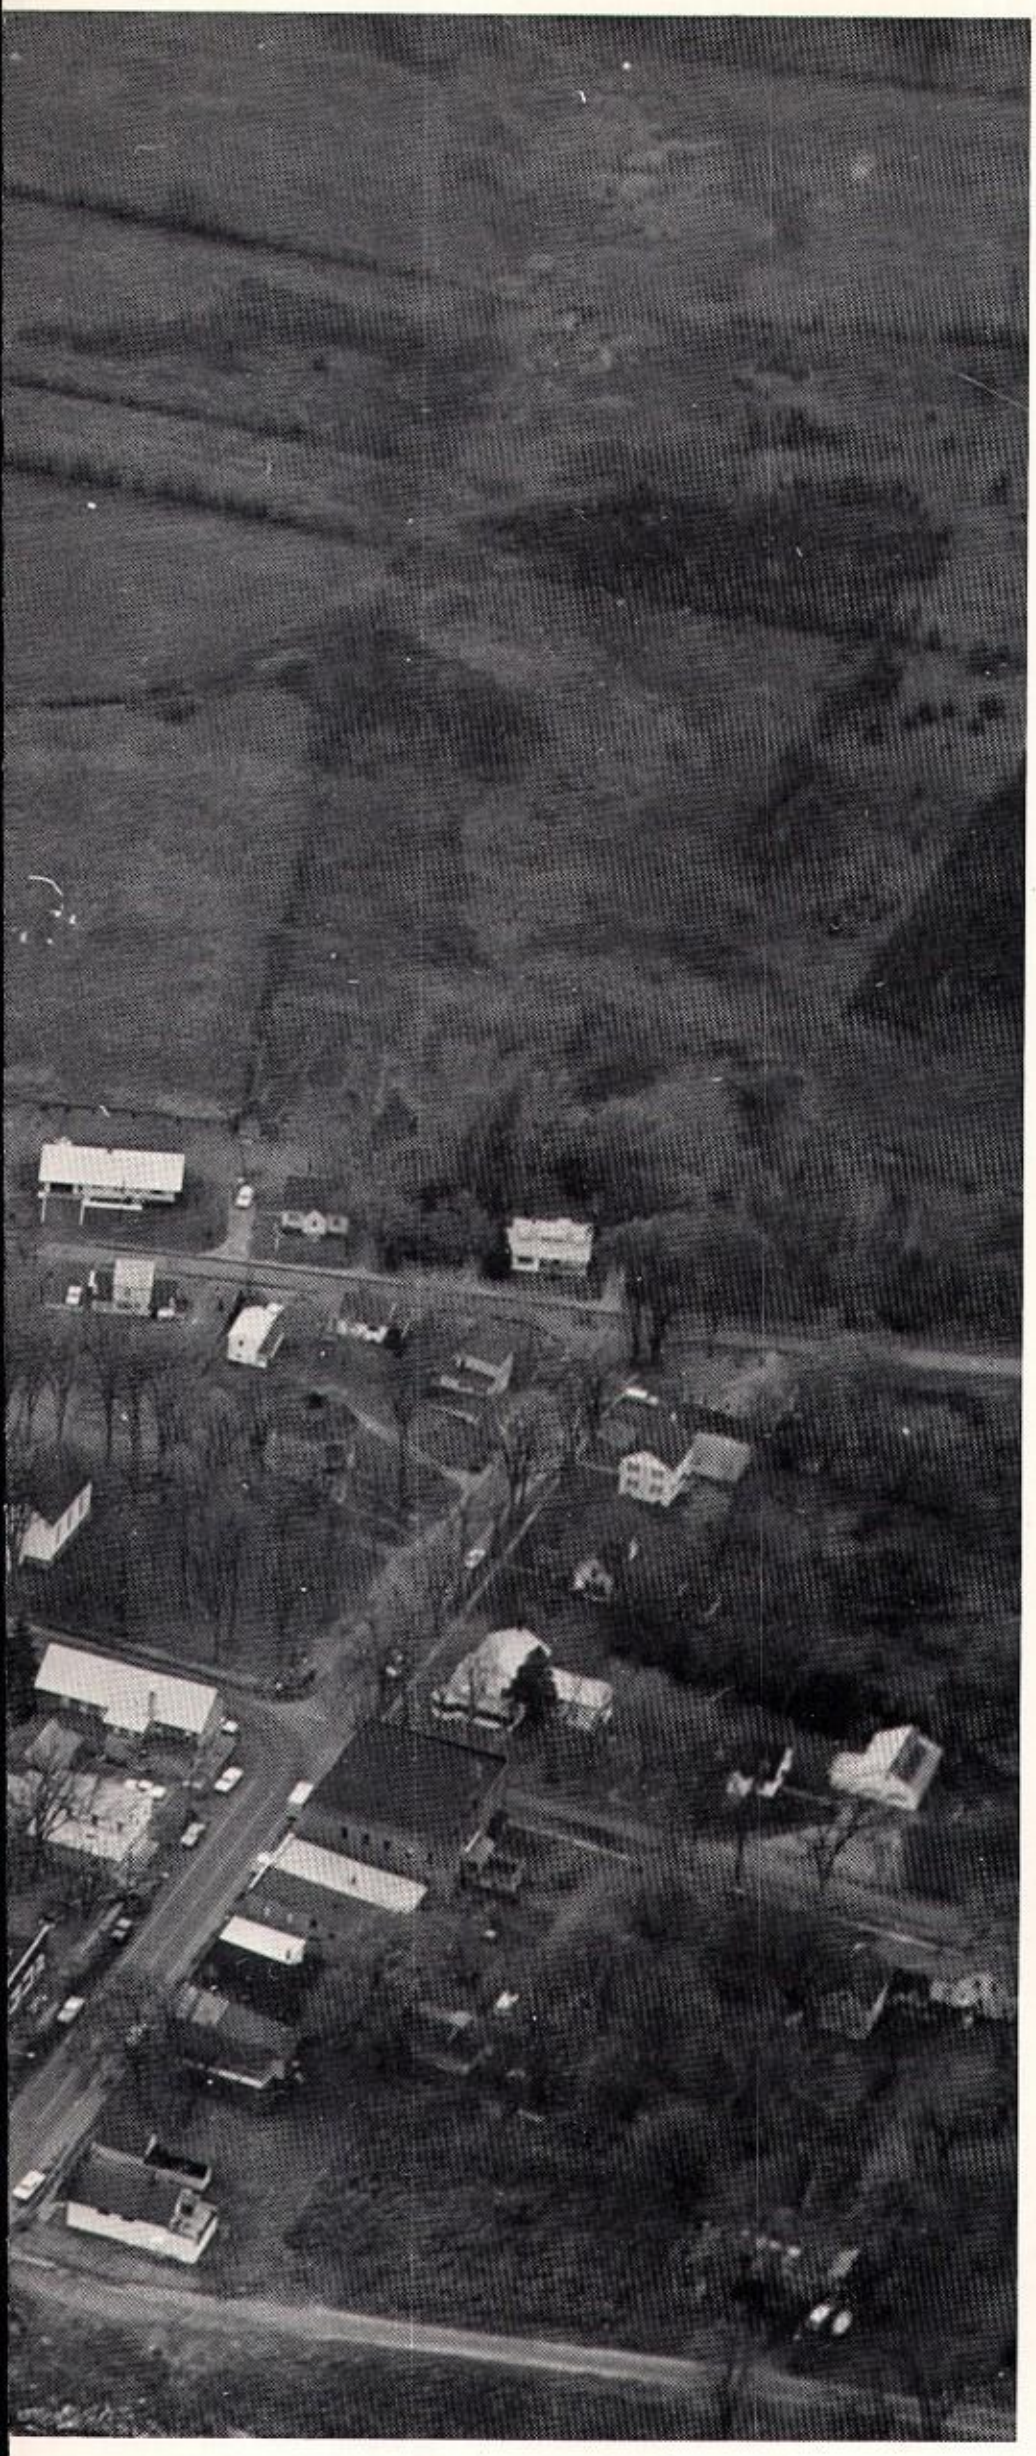
DEDICATION

"I have built me a monument more lasting than bronze."
(Horace-65-8, B. C.)

After spending five years with the West Point band, Mr. James Eagles came to Northern New York. For the past twenty years he has been serving in this community, first as a mathematics teacher and for the past three years as elementary principal. He has been active in community affairs and has served on the recreation for the past several years.

It is with pride that the CENTRALIAN staff dedicate this year book to Mr. Eagles. May you have many more sucessful years as principal.



SENIORS

"Tomorrow we embarke upon the boundless sea."
(Horace 65-8 B. C.)

The staff is proud of this CENTRALIAN for many reasons. It has more pages and more pictures than ever before. We are especially proud of our division pages. The aerial photography is courtesy of Mr. Parr. We would like to take this opportunity to thank the merchants in this area for their support in the past. This is the first year that the CENTRALIAN will carry no advertising. We would also like to thank the Board of Education for making this possible.

The FFA program for the year will include the following categories: supervised farming programs, cooperative action, community service, leadership training, scholarship, public relations, local, county, state and national activities.

These categories will be fulfilled through chapter judging teams competing at the county level. Machinery will be repaired for local farmers and members home farm equipment.

The chapter will compete in the County Chapter Meeting Contest to demonstrate Parliamentary skills.

A local Parent and Son Banquet will be held as a climax to the years activities.

A Summer Cattle Show and Tractor contest will be held for 4-H Club groups and the FFA.

Teams will compete at the St. Lawrence County Fair in Dairy Cattle, crops, milk quality, and rope work.

Local chapter meetings will be held twice monthly at which time leadership training will be practiced and committees will meet in carrying out the years program.

MONDAY MORNING HEADLINES

Mustangs Down Shamrocks

The "game of the night" tomorrow as far as the Northern League is concerned will be played in Brasher Falls where the St. Lawrence Central Mustangs of Coach Jack Smith tangle with their backyard rival, the Salmon River Central Shamrocks of Coach "Magic Mac" McLean.

Both teams posted opening night victories, the Mustangs edging Norwood-Norfolk and the Shamrocks taking the sting out of the Madrid-Waddington Yellow Jackets. Smith and McLean appear to have well-balanced, talented clubs and although the season is barely underway the outcome of their clash could well be a big factor in the playoff aspirations of both teams.
